

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 5:30-7:30 PM
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY HOSTS
RECEPTION

$15/$10 with university, museum, or preservation non-profit ID, Pay at the Door.

The Department of History at AU will host a special Friday night event for area students and professionals interested in touring the New Hampshire Avenue mansion of German brewer Christian Heurich. Graduate students in American University's Department of History will assist visitors on self-guided tours. Admission includes food, drinks, and live chamber music provided by the AU Department of Performing Arts.

For questions, please contact Dr. Kathleen Franz, Department of History, American University, 202-885-2385, franz@american.edu.

Press please contact Mary Anne Hoffman, Friends of the Castle 703-862-6706.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 8:30-MIDNIGHT
BE A SWEETHEART, SAVE THE CASTLE...
CHAMPAGNE & TRUFFLES AT THE CASTLE

Black Tie/Cocktail, $75.00 in Advance or at the Door.

Plan to join the Friends of The Castle for a special Valentine's evening to help save one of the most important local historic sites in Washington...of all nights to have a heart, this is the one, so make this unique experience part of your special Valentine's celebration...make checks payable to (or pay at the door) "The Brewmaster's Castle," write "Valentine" or draw a heart in the note area, and mail to: Heather Dawn Thompson, 1244 Potomac Street, NW, Washington, DC 20007.

For questions, please contact Heather Dawn Thompson at info@heurichhouse.org.

Press please contact Mary Anne Hoffman, Friends of the Castle 703-862-6706.

The Brewmaster's Castle is America's most intact late-Victorian house museum and is celebrating its 50th year of service to the public, but is at risk of being lost...please learn more at www.BrewmastersCastle.com and please join us in saving one of Washington's most important local historic sites and a landmark on the National Register of Historic Places!